Welcome To Goodnow!

June Greetings!

Message from the director,

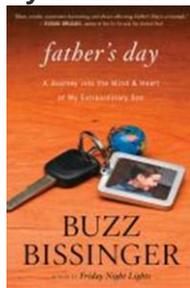

June is the month we begin to live outdoors in earnest in New England, and with it comes grilling, baseball, and, of course, Father's Day. With that in mind, here is my list of recommended books for celebrating dads of all interests.

Have a great summer!

Esmé

Father's day : a journey into the mind and heart of my extraordinary son by Buzz Bissinger.

A remarkable memoir from the best-selling author of Friday Night Lights and Three Nights in August.

Buzz Bissinger's twins were born three minutes—and a world—apart. Gerry, the older one, is a graduate student at Penn, preparing to become a teacher. His brother Zach is a savant, challenged by serious intellectual deficits but also blessed with rare talents: an astonishing memory, and a reflexive honesty that can make him both socially awkward and surprisingly wise.

Grill this, not that! By David Zinczenko

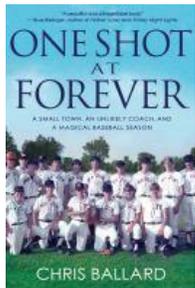

Bestselling authors Zinczenko and Goulding team up again to redefine the backyard BBQ.

Calico Joe by John Grisham

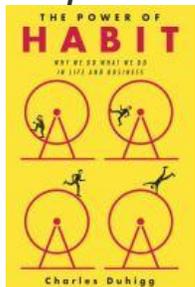

A surprising and moving novel of fathers and sons, forgiveness and redemption, set in the world of Major League Baseball.

One shot at forever : a small town, an unlikely coach, and a magical baseball season by Chris Ballard

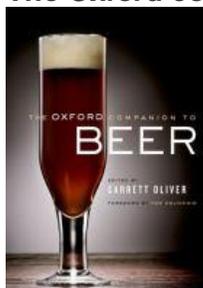

"Friday Night Lights" meets "Hoosiers" and "Dead Poet's Society" in this inspirational story about an unlikely coach who leads a high-school baseball team and their small Illinois town to a season they'll never forget.

The power of habit : why we do what we do in life and business by Charles Duhigg

Duhigg explores how habits influence individual, societal, and organizational experience and describes the social and psychological factors that create, maintain, and break habits, using a series of reinforcing anecdotes to bring his point home.

The Oxford companion to beer, edited by Garrett Oliver

For millennia, beer has been a favorite beverage in cultures across the globe. After water and tea, it is the most popular drink in the world, and it is at the center of a $450 billion industry.

GOODNOW OFFERS A VARIETY OF BOOK GROUPS!

The Bookies Book Group

The Bookies" Book Discussion Group Tuesday, June 26, at 7 pm

The "Bookies" next book selection for our discussion is The Songlines by Bruce Chatwin. We will meet on Tuesday, June 26, at 7 pm.

The Songlines, published in 1986, follows the author's travels through central Australia. Chatwin reflects deeply upon the distinctions between settled people and wanderers, especially through Australia's aborigines' cultural activities. A well-received and popular title: a sure winner for some thoughtful discussion. At our previous book discussion, the group had a rousing debate on the merits of An Arsonist's Guide to Writers' Homes in New England by Brock Clarke. It seemed to have lit a fire for those who found it, by turns, hilarious, outrageous, sharply observant, and convoluted!

Feel free to ask for a copy of the book at the Circulation Desk. We hope you will attend and enjoy a lively, informal discussion.

The Goodnow Book Club For Grown Up Girls

Please join us for THE GOODNOW BOOK CLUB FOR GROWN UP GIRLS
June 14, 7 pm

Believe it or not, Chick Lit is here to stay and is now considered a staple of the fiction genres, revolving around women dealing with relationships, jobs, marriage, raising children and much more.

Our group focuses on these modern works and discusses the merits and pitfalls of reading chick lit. Is it really all shopping, fashion, nannies and drama – or can these characters actually teach us something about our lives and ourselves?

Come find out! We'll be reading Fifty Shades of Grey, by E.L James.

TIME: 7:00 - 8:30 PM

LOCATION: FCC Room 1

COST: FREE!!! (must pre-register at Park and Recreation)

Facilitated by Goodnow Library and Park & Recreation Staff

Books are available at the Library.

Books in Bloom Book Group

Read the book, interpret it in Fresh or Silk Flowers, then come and discuss the book and display your creation

When: Friday, June 15

Where: In the Small Conference Room at the Goodnow Library

This Month's Title: Minding Frankie by Maeve Binchy
