

Dr. Susan Sama
Sudbury Board of Health Member

Susan R. Sama, RN, Sc.D. Epidemiologist. Dr. Sama is an epidemiologist with over 20 years of professional experience in public health, specializing in occupational and environmental health. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Dr. Sama's research has also included a focus on elucidating risk factors and the impacts of Long-COVID. Within the Sudbury Health Department, Dr. Sama provides timely health and epidemiologic expertise to protect the health and well-being of Sudbury residents and employees. She has been a BOH member since 2014 and is a member of the Medical Reserve Corp supporting the public health infrastructure in Sudbury