

Library of Things

The Library of Things is a collection of non-traditional items. Library patrons are required to check out and return Library of Things items to the Reference Desk at the Goodnow Library in Sudbury, MA.

Borrowers must be Sudbury residents and 18 years of age or older. A valid Minuteman Library Network card in good standing is required to borrow a Thing. For items with a value of over $200, borrowers must sign a copy of the Library of Things Lending Agreement.

Limits:

- Patrons are limited to THREE Library of Things check outs per month

Borrowing periods

- Items may be checked for up to 14 days with no renewals; patrons may choose the number of days they wish to borrow the item when they place their reservation.

Proper Use and Liability

- The borrower is responsible for the item and will be billed:
 - if the item is not returned by the due date,
 - for reasonable repair or replacement costs associated with damage or loss of items and/or peripherals due to neglect or abuse.
- A list of replacement costs is maintained by the Library and is available upon request.
- Goodnow Library is not responsible for any injury, loss, or damage that may occur from use of any item.
- It is the borrower's responsibility to protect against loss. Staff will inspect each item upon return. Borrowers are expected to return the item with all parts, components and carriers to the Reference Desk.
- Library of Things items may not be returned in the book drops
- Patrons will be responsible for any missing parts or damage to each item until it has been checked in and found to be complete and in working order.
